CONTRACTUAL TERMS

It shall be conditions of this contract that the product to be sold and delivered hereunder shall not be, in whole or in part, (a) of Russian origin, or any other origin that would be in breach of economic trade sanctions laws imposed by international authorities (including but not limited to, those maintained by various European Governments and the European Union, Switzerland, the US Government as enforced by the US Office of Foreign Assets Control, the U.S. Department of State, and the U.S. Department of Commerce, and various United Nations sanctions as implemented into local laws) ("Sanctions Laws"); and/or (b) loaded in, transported, or transhipped from Russia or anywhere else in breach of Sanctions Laws.

Seller shall upon request promptly provide the Buyer with a certificate of origin for the product supplied under this contract. Should Seller fail to do so, or if at any time during the performance of the contract Buyer becomes aware or has reasonable grounds to believe that Seller is in breach of the condition as aforesaid or has engaged in any conduct designed to evade applicable sanctions laws, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel the contract for Seller's account and risk. Under such circumstances, Buyer shall not be held liable for any loss, delays, claims or damages suffered and Seller shall further indemnify Buyer against any and all claims, including return of any payment, losses, damages, costs and fines whatsoever suffered by Buyer resulting from any breach of warranty as aforesaid.

Physical supplier shall arrange for a minimum of 5 continuous drip samples to be taken during delivery of the products in the presence of representatives of the vessel. Two samples shall be retained by the vessel one being the MARPOL compliant sample. The remaining samples shall be retained by the physical supplier. All samples shall be sealed, labelled and signed by both the Buyer and Seller and their numbers stated on the Bunker Delivery Note. The samples shall be retained for minimum forty-five (45) days after delivery of the products to the vessel or in case of a quality dispute the samples shall be retained by the physical supplier until the Buyer has agreed in writing that the dispute has been finally resolved.

The products to be supplied shall be of reasonable mercantile quality, free of bacteria, fungi, algae and yeast and shall in all respects comply with the applicable ISO 8217 standard including the general requirements.

A Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) complying with Annex 1 & 2 of the SOLAS Regulation VI/5-1 for each product to be supplied is to be provided by the physical supplier to the crew of the receiving vessel prior to delivery.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

In order to secure our timely payment for this delivery it is a condition that we receive the invoice including the signed and stamped bunker receipt not later than 14 days before due date.

Best Regards
Dan-Bunkering (Middle East) DMCC
